JOEL RAFAEL'S NEW ALBUM THIRTEEN STORIES HIGH IS DUE OUT ON INSIDE RECORDINGS ON APRIL 8, 2008 – THE LEAD SINGLE, "THIS IS MY COUNTRY," AN INSTANT-CLASSIC PROTEST SONG, FEATURES BACKING VOCALS FROM DAVID CROSBY & GRAHAM NASH

Los Angeles, CA, March X, 2008: On April 8, Southern California-based singer-songwriter Joel Rafael will release THIRTEEN STORIES HIGH, his first album of original material since 2000's acclaimed Hopper. The disc comes out on Inside Recordings, the independent label founded by Jackson Browne and his management team; distribution is through ADA. It follows up Rafael's two renowned albums saluting the songs of Woody Guthrie, of whose music he's considered a natural and pre-eminent interpreter. Joel Rafael is also the recipient of the Kerrville Folk Festival's 1995 "New Folk Emerging Songwriter Award."

Blending troubadourial eloquence, timeless folk and timely political observations, THIRTEEN STORIES HIGH opens with its lead single, the forthright and simply-worded protest song "This Is My Country," with backing vocals from Rafael's friends David Crosby and Graham Nash. "I wish I had written this song," says Nash, adding, "it's so powerful and profound...a call from his heart to ours."

Throughout, the album is driven by this directness. It's also colored by Rafael's plain-spoken delivery—as gentle as it is affecting—and wry, understated way with a moving lyric. In a recent piece on Rafael, screenwriter Bob Krakower described his singing style as, "a voice that sounds like a cross between Mercy and Vengeance," continuing, "he walks and talks as if he came off the pages of a 1930's Steinbeck novel...his is as authentic as any American voice you have heard in a very long time."

That authenticity informs Rafael originals including the homespun yet elegant philosophical gem "Time Stands Still," the resonant "Song Of Socrates" (inspired by the film The Peaceful Warrior) and "Reluctant Angel," a meditation on sharing one's gifts with the world. Highlights also include "Promised Land," which he calls a, "to hell and back song," the free-spirited folk ballad "Wild Honey" and "Missing Pages," whose theme of resistance to fear-mongering echoes the album's social justice message.

Two of the thirteen tracks are covers of other songwriters' work – "Rich Man's War" first saw the light of day on Steve Earle's 2004 album The Revolution Starts Now. "Thematically," says Rafael, "it was perfect for this record." "I Ought To Know" is by longtime friend Jack Hardy, one of the forces behind the historic Fast Folk series (now in the Smithsonian). When he first heard Hardy perform it at the Woody Guthrie Folk Festival, Rafael says, "I was knocked out by it and knew I wanted to record it."

Rafael has performed at that same Festival since its 1998 inception in Guthrie's hometown of Okemah, OK, and will be a featured performer when it takes place there this year from July 9 through 13. Long renowned for his fluid interpretations of the legendary artist's music, Rafael is also a member of the national touring cast of the famed Woody Guthrie revue Ribbon Of Highway, Endless Skyway.

Rafael's recorded tributes to Guthrie, also out on Inside, are Woodeye ('02) and Woodyboye ('05), The Songs of Woody Guthrie, Volume 1 and Volume 2, respectively. Together, they present Rafael's elemental takes on twenty-four Guthrie—and two Guthrie-inspired—compositions. Five feature music Rafael created for previously unpublished Woody Guthrie lyrics, given to him by Nora Guthrie, who directs the Woody Guthrie Archives and oversees her father's legacy. Woodeye and Woodyboye, which contain guest appearances by Artho Guthrie, Jackson Browne, Jennifer Warnes and Van Dyke Parks, will be available in special bundled packages with THIRTEEN STORIES HIGH (and individually).

In addition to festivals and Ribbon Of Highway, Endless Skyway engagements, Joel Rafael plans to perform select concert dates in support of THIRTEEN STORIES HIGH.
